PARTNERSHIPS ARE BASED ON TRUST

- We will do our BEST.
- We have the best interest of the students.

As parents and teachers,

We can only help as much as the STUDENTS WANT TO HELP THEMSELVES.

As parents and teachers, we ought to Work together and encourage STUDENTS TO TAKE OWNERSHIP OF

THEIR OWN LEARNING.

Forging meaningful partnerships!

Positive parent-teacher relationship contributes to your child's school success.

- Parents need information about what and how their child is learning
- Teachers need important feedback from the parent about the child's social development

LET'S WORK TOGETHER TO HELP SIMON ENJOY
HIS LEARNING.

The background of the slide is a faded, light-colored image of a school building. The building has a central tower with a clock face and a spire. There are Chinese characters on the building's facade. At the bottom of the image, the name 'Xingnan Primary School' is written in large, white, 3D-style letters.
